Guntur East, Andhra Pradesh, India

Summary

Hi, I'm Praneetha, a second-year BSc Computer Science student at SRM University AP. I have a strong passion for coding, web development, and ethical hacking. I enjoy exploring new technologies, solving problems through code, and continuously expanding my skill set. Whether it's developing websites, understanding cybersecurity, or diving into new programming languages, I'm always eager to learn and grow.

Projects

- Customer Churn Prediction using Machine Learning
Developed a churn prediction model using Python, pandas, and scikit-learn on telecom customer data. Performed data cleaning, feature engineering, and model training to identify key factors contributing to customer churn. Achieved improved model accuracy using GridSearchCV for hyperparameter tuning and applied correlation analysis to remove multicollinearity.
